Security scan upon download Dear Mr.Rocher : Re: your client No.: 0363-01028

I have just came across your letter of November 06/2007 which was sent to an E-mail I rarely review, my apologies for the delay in responding. I may summerize my response in the following points :

1- To begin with I am glad to hear that Nemir "will be monitoring the publication of [my] memoirs very closely). However, I am puzzled why Nemir chose to communicate through a lawyer's venue instead of directly contacting me. In my first e-mail to him (copy attached) I provided my communication coordinates. Indeed , one may infer that Nemir is concerned about certain facts in the said memoirs.

2- In my E-mail of October 29th., 2007 I intended to afford Nemir the opportunity of reviewing the memoirs (as to Nemir and Investcorp) prior to publication in order to see if he has any comments to make. This opportunity is still available to him personally not to lawyers.

3- As to duty of confidentiality to Nemir and/or Investcorp, I respectfully disagree with your contention. Every point I make and every fact I assert is supported with incontrovertible document, none of which would now be classified as "private" , "classified " or "confidential ". In fact almost all documents to which I refer or upon which I rely are in the public domain as a result of discovery given by various parties , including Nemir ,Ernst & Young, AMF, FNBC, in litigation proceedings in various jurisdictions including (but not limited to) Abu-Dhabi and London.

4- Finally, recently it was brought to my attention that your client , Mr.Kirdar , (without my knowledge or consent) interfered directly in removing from the first edition of my memoirs (published in Arabic) certain photos and passages. On this matter I am seeking legal advice. Does your client has an explanation ?

Yours sincerely

Jawad Hashim
